“For the Love of Shag”

April 2017

Through the National FastDance Association, our club dance activities are licensed by:

From Your Club President,
Dede Ward

Hi Everyone,

It's HERE! - time for our annual fund raiser for our charities! Hope you have all bought your tickets, and are ready to hear a great band that will keep you dancing all night long, great food from local vendors, adult beverages, but most importantly, being able to raise money with your good friends by your side!

If you are not able to come on Saturday, April 8th, we hope you would consider making a donation. Our charities include Camp Courage - a camp for kids with cancer and blood disorders. This is a weeklong camp that allows the kids to be kids - swim, zip-line, dance, etc. - all supervised by medical staff. Our shag club is invited by the camp to teach the kids to shag. What an amazing evening we spend with them. We will let you know the dates of the two camps (one for teens, one for younger kids) in case you would like to help.

The Ellen Taylor Foundation (ETFJS) is a non-profit group that gives financial assistance in the education, preservation, and promotion of the Shag, the state dance of South Carolina. The purpose of the ETFJS is to remove financial barriers that prevent those under 21 from learning and participating in the shag dance. Many of our members' children and grandchildren have benefited from this foundation.

And this year for this event, another charity that will benefit is the Greenville Downtown Airport's Runway Park. If you have ever been to the Runway Cafe, you see the amazing park. It's free, open to the public and has an educational amphitheater. With exercise and walking "Runways," as well as aviation themed playground equipment, the park meets the needs of our local school children who can no longer visit our larger airport due to security changes.

I hope to see you Saturday night, April 8th!

Dede

Carolina Shag Club Party is a Saint Patrick's Day Theme

The Hangar at Greenville Downtown Airport Turns Green with March Party

Carolina Shag Club members sit down for some café food and drinks before the dancing started on March 11th at the Saint Patrick's Day party at Runway Café's Hangar. The décor was the typical Saint Patrick's Day green revealed by the table cloths.

The next CSC party will be the pre-SOS party on Wednesday, April 19th at The Hangar. CSC members will receive tickets that can be used to purchase food and drinks.

Pictured above is Nancy Brockman (left) and Angie Peloquin as they drum up some partying spirits before the split-the-pot drawing. As always, their party spirit draws the crowd's attention.

Pictured right is Nancy Brockman holding the prize money before the drawing. The $79 cash prize was won by Karen Lewis and Skip Watkins. They each chipped in to purchase a strand of 15 tickets. Carolina Shag Club retains the other half of the pot for donations to charities or club expenses.

CSC Members Enjoy Dances in and Around the Upstate

R&B Shag Club, Electric City Shag Club, The Hangar and Carolina Ale House are Popular Spots for Gathering

ECSC provided a light meal of beef, turkey, salad and dessert to all members attending. Serving a meal is a tradition also followed by Carolina Shag Club at their membership renewal parties. ECSC has a somewhat lower number of members compared to Carolina Shag Club.

In these photos, Jill and Steve Woodard (in center) load the dance floor at the Carolina Ale House on Tuesday, March 28th. Dancers can learn a quick, free step each Tuesday beginning at 6:00 p.m. The quick lesson lasts for half an hour.
