“For the Love of Shag”

June 2017

Through the National FastDance Association, our club dance activities are licensed by:

From Your Club President,
Dede Ward

Hi Everyone,

What a great party to honor the Greenville Area Hall of Fame inductees on May 20 at the Runway Hangar! Congrats to them all!

As most of you have read in an email to the membership, this will be our last month at the Runway Cafe Hangar for shag dancing and lessons. We appreciate the efforts of Mike and staff to make us feel welcomed, and we regret that it's not working out for both groups. Let's enjoy this last month of dancing on Wednesday nights there - and don't forget Saturday, June 10 Vinyl Party with Hall of Fame DJ John Wilson. You will hear some of the best shag music there is with the best sound - vinyl records!

Your shag club board will be open for suggestions for a new venue to dance on Wednesday nights. Keep your eyes and ears open and email us at thecarolinashagclub@gmail.com Again, we are looking for a place with a willing partner, ample parking, large dance floor, full service bar, good eats and a safe venue.

Teaching shag to the kids at Camp Courage is one of the highlights of our year! We are doing this on Tuesday, June 27. Please see the newsletter notice on page 2 for more details.

The Greater Greenville Shag Classic shag contest will be held on July 7 & 8. Reserve a seat! Come out and support your local competitors! It will be a fun weekend!

See you on the dance floor!

Dede

The Sun Sets on Shaggin' at The Hangar

Carolina Shag Club loses home for second time in eight months.

Everyone,

The owners of the Runway Cafe were hopeful to be able to turn the Hangar into the place we needed as a shag club. However, due to circumstances beyond their control, they are unable to turn the Hangar into the shag venue we need, and into the profitable partnership they had hoped for. We are grateful that we can dance there on Wednesdays until the end of June, allowing us time to seek other opportunities. When you come out to The Runway next month, please remember to thank Mike and his team for their efforts to provide a welcoming venue for our club.

There will be shag lessons during the month of June, and we will have our last Saturday night at the Runway Hangar on June 10 - a vinyl record party with King of the Vinyl records himself - Hall of Fame DJ John Wilson. Let's make this last month at the Runway a great one!!!

We need suggestions! No matter how "off the wall" you think it might be, tell us! We will consider each venue suggestion and visit those locations that show promise. Our club's basic needs are: a willing partner, a safe and convenient location, a large dance floor, ample parking, and full bar service. So, fill up our suggestion box. Our email address is thecarolinashagclub@gmail.com

Carolina Shag Club will continue to dance at the Carolina Ale House on Tuesday starting at 7pm.

Thank you for your support of the Runway Café these last several months and remember that our goal as a club and board is to keep the party going.

Regards,
The Carolina Shag Club Board

She's from Morganton, N.C., home of the Sandy Beach Shag Club. Sandy Beach was one of the evening's host clubs.

Pictured above, right is Keith McMahon and other Carolina Shag Club members monitoring their 50/50 split-the-pot tickets. Nobody from CSC was a winner. Almost $1,000 in sales were made.

According to the flyer, all proceeds of the Saluda party go to The Ellen Taylor Foundation. The party's usually had about a dozen or more CSC members in attendance each year.
