“For the Love of Shag”

October 2021

CSC President's Page

Hello CSC Members and Friends:

I'm sure that many of you had a great time at SOS. Even though some shaggers are limiting their time with friends due to the ongoing pandemic, we all hope this event will be behind us in the next year and we can all see each other again. SOS attendees I heard from were thankful that the storms stayed away this year. Many said they had a great time; crowds were good and several brought back sand and shells.

Once again, we will have a “Save The Ta Tas” party on October 6th. I encourage everyone to come for this worthwhile event. Just watch the weekly “Shoutout” for details. When you come for this charitable event, be sure to bring some extra money to toss for this great cause.

We plan to have our Halloween Party on October 27th...be sure to look in your closet and get your costumes ready to go! Once again, watch for the weekly ‘Shoutout’ to provide you with all the details.

Our Christmas Party is still on for December 4th, to be held at Embassy Suites. We'll be releasing our details soon so put that date on your calendar.

I'd like to express my condolences for a few friends who've recently lost loved ones. Gwyn Smith, our club Secretary recently lost her brother, Ronnie Williams. He lived in Matthews, N.C. Also, Jennifer Coggins of Friar's lost her son, Noah in a recent car accident. Let's keep these friends in our thoughts and prayers.

Carolina Shag Club is filled with a wonderful group of people and I'm proud to be president of such a great club...I hope to see all of you in the coming days.

Keep on Dancing
Susan Blackwell, President

Carolina Shag Club Happenings

Beach music, adult beverages, raffles, free basic shag or line dance lessons are featured on Wednesday nights.

Pictured left – Steve & Jill Woodard (center) demonstrate a shag step for some members of CSC on Wednesday, September 22nd. Free shag steps are taught on alternating Wednesday nights.

Pictured right – Jill Woodard is passing out tickets for a drawing at the pre-SOS party on Wednesday, September 15th. The club usually holds a party prior to members going to SOS at North Myrtle Beach.

Dennis Fleming (standing left) is giving a pre-class explanation of a line dance step to the pending line dancers. Dennis teaches a free lesson on alternating Wednesdays beginning about 6:30 p.m.

Donna Pawlowski will have the guys chasing after her since she won $72 in the split-the-pot drawing on Wednesday, September 29th.

Carolina Shag Club Happenings

Susan Kendrick was a split-the-pot winner (again) at the Brass Monkey on September 8th, winning approximately $80.

September 8th finds the floor loaded up with line dancers. Norman Mills is the featured DJ for this evening.

September 11 – Upstate Shag Club dances on the 1st & 2nd Saturday of each month at Southport Bar & Grill in Roebuck, S.C. Several CSC members often make the trip to enjoy the music, great bar food and adult beverages. Southport also features a nice, wood dance floor.

The crowd hits the dance floor later in the evening after many of them dined on Unterhausen's German foods. Numerous German beers were also consumed.

Jeff & Dede Ward, with additional efforts by Dorothy Jarrett Barnett and owner Wade Shealy, held a shag event on Saturday, October 2nd. The dance took place at Unterhausen, The Castle Cellar Pub in downtown Simpsonville, S.C.

The dance was initially set up as a night out for Jeff & Dede's shag class students. When word about the dance went out around Carolina Shag Club several others also came to dance. They also enjoyed the German themed food, European beers and a large wine selection.

Later that evening, Jeff & Dede were honored with engraved mugs for their induction into the S.C. Shaggers Hall of Fame (see photo inset at left).

The Ward's were visibly appreciative of the nice gifts. Dede later said on Facebook, "Thank you Unterhausen & Wade Shealy for honoring us last night! It was Jeff's honor to play shag music at one of Simpsonville's premiere restaurants! What a fun night!"

Carolina Shag Club Board Meeting – August 10, 2021

(Minutes approved on September 14, 2021)

I. Call to order

President Susan Blackwell called the August board meeting to order at 6:40 PM. Also in attendance were Rick Wilson, Gwyn Smith, Wayne Hembree, Doug McLaughlin, Jill Woodard, Brenda Ellington, Becky Wilson, Dede Ward, Skip Watkins, Steve Woodard, Karen Lewis, Ann Allen, and Alicia Pittman.

II. Approval of Minutes

Minutes were Emailed to all board members prior to the meeting. Doug McLaughlin made a motion to approve the minutes. Steve Woodard seconded the motion, and the motion carried.

III. Treasurer's Report

Treasurer Wayne Hembree sent a report out to all board members prior to the meeting, and he also reviewed the report with the board. Totals for 'Meet Me in the Middle' were not available for this report. DJ's and the upcoming Christmas party are the main expenditures. Account balance as of 7/30/2021 was $22,575.14. Steve Woodard made a motion to accept the treasurer's report. Skip Watkins seconded the motion, and the motion carried.

IV. Old Business

- The board agreed that 'Meet Me in the Middle' was a great party. Thanks to all club members that attended and helped in any way. A report will be available in September.
- Dancing at the Brass Monkey is going well. Rick and Becky Wilson spoke with management about the condition of the dance floor (dirty and sticky), bathrooms, and the DJ Booth (speakers hiding the DJ/ need to be relocated). Management did not promise any changes.
- SOS cards must be sold by September 1st or be returned to ACSA for sale at Fall SOS.

V. New Business

- Members of the planning committee for the annual Hall of Fame Golf Tournament are seeking $100 'hole sponsorships' from shag clubs. Sponsorships are due by October 16, 2021. Steve Woodard made a motion for our club to donate $100. Gwyn Smith seconded the motion, and the motion carried. Treasurer Wayne Hembree will send the check.
- There will be no Fun Sunday or Monday during Fall Migration.
- All CSC members attending Fall SOS need to be aware of "new parking areas in OD." Look for signs!!
- ACSC clubs are supposed to have representation at the American Bop Association's Annual Meeting. This year, the meeting is in St. Louis. Phillip and Suzie Park have agreed to represent the Carolina Shag Club at the meeting. Steve Woodard made a motion for Phillip and Suzie to represent us, and in return, the CSC would pay their expenses for one night and one day. Rick Wilson seconded the motion, and the motion carried. Wayne Hembree amended the motion to read that "the CSC would, with receipts, reimburse the Parks for the one night and one day expense."

VI. Committee Reports

- Jill Woodard brought the board up to date on Membership. She has created and reviewed a spread sheet to show the number of members we have had from 2018-2021. This involves several stats about the membership. For this report the total number of members for the last four years are...
2018 – 307 members, 2019 – 283 members, 2020—202 members, 2021—233 members
Jill recommends removing the names of Hall of Fame members who pass away from the list. (This was not confirmed with a vote.)
- MMIM summation will be given by Jim Coley during the September 14th board meeting.
- Social Chair Brenda Ellington had several comments about upcoming events.

-September 15, 2021 will be the Pre-SOS party at the Brass Monkey. All current shag club members will receive a ticket that will give them an opportunity to win a gift card. Any new members joining on Sept. 15th will also receive a ticket, and it gives them an opportunity to win a gift card. This is like a raffle, but there will be more winners. (The regular Wednesday night raffle will not take place.) Steve Woodard made a motion to approve the events for Sept. 15th. Wayne Hembree seconded the motion, and the motion passed.

-October 6, 2021, will be the annual “Save the Ta-Ta’s” party. Brenda asked for $50 toward decorations. Doug McLaughlin made a motion to approve the request. Wayne Hembree seconded the motion, and the motion carried.

-Brenda also announced that the Halloween party will be on October 27, 2021, at the Brass Monkey. There will be five (5) prizes for costumes. Brenda will need about $50 for decorations and $100 for new tablecloths. Details will be discussed later.

-Brenda will work with Skip Watkins and Steve Woodard to announce the details of the Christmas party via Shout Out and Facebook. For now, CSC members will pay $20 per person for the Christmas party. Guests will be charged $55.

- Ann Allen will provide Brenda Ellington with the Christmas party information from the Embassy Suite in 2020 to assist Brenda with planning.
- Becky Wilson reported that the DJs are lined up for several weeks.
- Steve Woodward announced we have 2255 Facebook followers.
- Steve Woodward announced he would send nominees for 2022 officers and committee chairmen to Vice President Rick Wilson.

Wayne Hembree asked for the chair to adjourn the meeting.
President Susan Blackwell adjourned the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
Gwyn Smith, CSC secretary
