CSC President's Page

Hello CSC Members and Friends:

Well, our summer is about gone! Where did it seem to go??? We're now at the cusp of Fall SOS and I hope you all can attend. We can celebrate the return of Billy Waldrep and Buck Crumpton at Duck's Beach Club on Main Street in North Myrtle Beach. And watch the club schedules for some of our other DJs playing at nearby locations at other times.

“Meet Me in the Middle” was a huge success this year. Numerous guests from out of town complimented our club on the great way everything was handled. My thanks go out to Jim Coley, Gwyn Smith and the other members who worked behind the scenes to make this party a success.

Our Christmas party this year will be held on December 4th (the first Saturday this year) at the Embassy Suites. You'll soon be hearing more about this so stay tuned. Put this date on your calendar so you don't miss the fun. It will be a great evening!

We've continued to hold virtual CSC board meetings and we're fortunate to have The Brass Monkey continue to have us dance on Wednesdays. We're continuing the “Split the Pot” drawings with members winning $100 or more each Wednesday. This has been a great way to help CSC pay for the DJ's as well as put some money in the pockets of those attending. Please support our club by coming out to dance and enjoying the delicious food with friends. Our DJ's are working hard and appreciate those who come to dance. The floor is large and there is plenty of room to dance and/or mingle. I hope you'll help us boost our attendance each week and put shagging on your Wednesday calendar!

CSC continues to add new members even though the rate is slowing now that the year is more than half over. I encourage anyone who's not joined or renewed to do so and share with us the benefits for the remainder of this year.

Keep on Dancing
Susan Blackwell, President
